"The Purpose & Values award reflects something we strive to demonstrate every day—that our mission is more than words on a wall. It represents a workplace where employees recognize that their work has meaning and where every role contributes to improving the health of our community," states Terry Jaqua, VP & Chief Human Resources Officer at San Antonio Regional Hospital. "The Professional Development award reflects our commitment to our employees' growth. We firmly believe that when our employees grow, our organization grows with them."

"Earning a Top Workplaces award is a badge of honor for companies, especially because it comes authentically from their employees," said Eric Rubino, Energage CEO. "That's something to be proud of. In today's market, leaders must ensure they're allowing employees to have a voice and be heard. That's paramount. Top Workplaces do this, and it pays dividends."
